Inspection Authorization

A Whole house and/or termite inspection is the right and responsibility of the Buyer. Whole house inspections include but are not limited to electrical & structural inspections, as well as plumbing, central heat & air and roof inspection. It is not our intent to represent or recommend any one company, nor is it our intent to exclude any company offering such inspection services. We are providing this information solely for convenience and at your request. Other companies are listed in the Yellow Pages, Angie's List, etc.

Please make your selections and sign the bottom of the page.
