

8 Week Marketing Plan

WEEK 0 (CAMPAIGN SETUP & PRE-LAUNCH)

You only have one chance to make a first impression with the consumer. Many agents and brokerages stumble on this step and cost their sellers real money when buyers don't value the home enough to make solid offers. So how can you avoid this misstep? Much of the property marketing campaign rests on the consumer's ability to find your property online... and to find it with the right information. These pre-launch activities, therefore, are designed to seed the marketplace, optimize for SEO, and position the property for the best possible impression right out of the gate.

- CENTURY 21 Goodyear Green "Coming Soon" real estate sign placed on property.
- Marketing Narrative and Lifestyle Story for the property, location, and neighborhood is drafted with client input provided in seller homework.
- Marketing Copy for the property is distilled from the Marketing Narrative and Lifestyle Story.

If there is insufficient interest in the property (lack of traffic & showings, negative feedback on value from people who toured the property), then a price reduction is most likely in order. Research and feedback from the market will give guidance on the price to market the home to sell it within the desired timeframe. Once a new price has been determined, the marketing campaign will be updated and a re-launch will take place.
